

8.45 – 9.15	Registration & Coffee
9.15 – 9.45	Welcome: Professor Stephen Marshall Welcome, overview of strategic directions of UNSW and TELT implementation
9.45 – 10.45	Keynote speaker: Dr Rod Sims, University of Southern Queensland Engaged Learners, Excited Teachers: Making Online Learning Truly Effective
10.45 – 11.05	Morning Tea
11.05 – 12.15	Discover Blended Learning Designed for staff completely new to online/blended learning How do I start to incorporate blended learning into course delivery?	Explore Blended Learning Designed for staff with some experience of developing online content and activities How do I go beyond basic content delivery and purposefully re-design my course for blended delivery?	Enrich Blended Learning experiences Designed for confident course designers and Moodle users How do I enrich my current practice?
	Session Presenters Dr Roumen Dimitrov (School of Arts and Media): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Using Moodle to explore social media and promote student centred learning. Assoc. Prof Jia Lin Yang (School of Medical Sciences): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Develop a new course in Moodle to deliver co-curriculum learning with no prior LMS experience. Dr Elizabeth Angstmann (School of Physics): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Facilitate pre-lab work in Moodle for large 1st year classes. 	Session Presenters Brigid Costello (School of Arts and Media): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Moving lectures online to enhance face-to-face engagement. Dr Sven Delaney (School of Biotechnology and Biomolecular Sciences): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Using simulations to teach threshold concepts to large 1st year classes. Using Moodle to support delivery of simulations. 	Session Presenters Dr Graeme Bushell (School of Chemical Sciences): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Facilitating peer assessment online Student collaboration online using the database activity. Using Moodle to manage research students/projects. Assoc. Prof. Julian Cox (Faculty of Science): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Facilitating peer review in Moodle for large 1st year classes.
12.20 – 1.00	Group Session: Dr Rod Sims Discussion of presentations
1.00 – 2.00	Lunch Optional opportunity to get TELT support or course design advice		